

CHARLES H. COFFIN
DIES IN NEW JERSEY

Father of Deceased Visiting Dr. Z. Orto When Notified of Son's Sudden Death.

Charles H. Coffin, formerly a resident of Batesville, and who had relatives and many friends here, died suddenly at his home at Lakehurst, N. J., yesterday, and the body will be brought to Batesville for burial, after funeral services in New York this afternoon.

Mr. Coffin was 53 years of age, and at the time of his death was president of the Niagara Fire Insurance company. He had made his home in the North for many years, although he was a frequent visitor to his relatives at Batesville.

Mr. Coffin is survived by his widow, his father, James C. Coffin of Batesville and a sister, Mrs. J. B. Fitzhugh, also of Batesville. He was a nephew of the late Mrs. Z. Orto of Pine Bluff.

Mr. Coffin, the father, was visiting Dr. Z. Orto when notified of his son's death. He left yesterday for Batesville.

Clipped By:

mick_haven
Fri, Nov 2, 2018